

"I'd like to be more adaptable to the varied learning needs of my pupils."

Certificate in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) Training for Teachers (1 day)

Overview: The Certificate in NLP Skills for Teachers has been developed as an introductory programme to understanding the fundamental skills of NLP to enable them to increase their own effectiveness in communication and therefore improve the learning experience for pupils.

The Course: As part of the Every Child Matters Programme, Local Authorities and Schools are targeting with identifying "what will work best for children and young people and to act on it". One proven way to do this is to refine traditional teaching methods to meet the varied learning needs of pupils.

NLP – Neuro Linguistic Programming is the practice of understanding how people organise their thinking, feeling, language and behaviour to produce the results they do.

The Certificate in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) Training for Teachers is a one day duration course and on completion all delegates receive a Certificate in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) Training for Teachers Certification by GoodSense Training.

Course objectives:

Delegates will leave the course knowing how to:

- > Design and deliver lessons through different sensory systems so they can engage with the whole class.
- > Learn the 6 keys to building rapport, which means that students actively search for ways to understand them.
- > Utilise metaphor to create a desired learning state, so they can assist their students to reach the learning intention.
- > Identify the filters students are employing through their language patterns which means delegates will know how to correct misunderstandings in communication.
- > Increase their influence by learning how to challenge limiting beliefs to enrich the pupil's experience of learning.
- > Deliver a short presentation that will embed learning and demonstrate new skills.
