

"I'd like to know the best way to respond when a child tells me they have been abused."

Foundation Training in Safeguarding (Children and Young People) (1 day)

Overview: The Foundation Training in Safeguarding course will lead to an improvement in both awareness and knowledge with regards to 'Safeguarding Children'.

The Course: The Foundation Training in Safeguarding course is a one day duration course and on completion all delegates receive a Certification of completion accredited by GoodSense Training.

Course objectives:

Delegates will leave the course knowing how to:

- > Identify possible early signs of neglect, physical, sexual and emotional abuse.
- > Understand the theory around attachment and the function of the assessment framework.
- > Identify the course of action when there are concerns/ a child discloses abuse to you.
- > Identify the appropriate contacts with other agencies.
- > Increase individual confidence.
- > Use case studies, statistics & research.
- > Cover Diversity and Domestic Violence issues.

Further information:

This Certificate can be customised to match your requirements. To find out more about our courses or to discuss a bespoke course please call us on 0113 258 0035 or email info@good-sense.co.uk

Suitability:

Everyone working in direct contact or closely with children, young people and families.

Mental health services and counselling services, where staff may come across child protection issues in the course of their work.